CANNON CRACKERS THREATEN DAMAGE

Careless Person Ignites Box of 24 Large Salutes at Fireworks Display Stand of Red Cross Pharmacy.

The Red Cross pharmacy and incidentally the entire downtown business section was threatened by fire on the eve of the Fourth when some one set off an entire box of cannon crackers in front of the drug store window. The pharmacy had placed an extra counter in front of the store and had stocked it with fireworks of all kinds. An unknown person purchased a box of 24 large salutes and lit the end of one while it was still in the box. The salute exploded and immediately after the remaining 23 followed suit. The purchaser dropped his shooting package at the side of the stand of fireworks.

Charles Thomas, one of the proprietors of the store, who was at the counter and one of his clerks kicked the cannon crackers into the street. It took lively work to get the entire two dozen away from the hundreds of sky rockets, roman candles and other inflammable matter stocked in front of the store, but they succeeded in finishing the task before any took fire. A great cloud of smoke rose over the sidewalk and a large crowd congregated, but no one was hurt.

The city was anything but quiet on the eve of Independence day, especially in the downtown district. If the noise of Thursday is a forecast of what will come on the "big day," Mishawaka may not witness itself observing the Fourth in as sane a manner as it had expected.

Great cannon crackers were shot off in the downtown streets Thursday evening far into the night. In the residence sections many a boy failed to resist the temptation to fire a roman candle or a sky rocket. Several balloons were also released in various parts of the city. As far as could be learned no one was injured in the pre-Fourth celebrations.

COUPLE ELOPE BUT ARE UNABLE TO WED

Canadian Law, Requiring 15 Days' Residence in Dominion, Proves to be Big Barrier

By exciting the suspicion of immigration officers at Windsor, Canada, Charles Wickizer, 320 E. Ninth st., and Edith Berger, 1115 S. Union st., an eloping couple from Mishawaka, were prevented from being married.

The officer's suspicion was aroused when the couple endeavored to procure a marriage license but were told of the necessity of living in the dominion 15 days before they could obtain the document. The couple were taken into custody and held until an investigation could be made. In the meantime the girl's father, William Berger, had reported the matter to Chief Bunker of South Bend and he went to the Canadian city to bring the girl back to Mishawaka. He returned with her Wednesday evening. Wickizer also returned home, although not with the chief. The couple left here last Sunday.

MANY PEOPLE ATTEND REGULAR PRAYER MEETS

The regular Thursday evening prayer meetings were held in the First Methodist Episcopal Memorial church, the First Presbyterian, the First Baptist, First Christian and First Evangelical. Large crowds were in attendance at practically all of these edifices, notwithstanding the extreme hot weather. The effects of the Billy Sunday revival were evident in the numbers and enthusiasm of the attendants.

Special services featured at most of the churches. They consisted mainly of interesting talks delivered by the pastors and music.

JORDON AUTOMOBILE STRIKES ANOTHER CAR

A five-passenger Ford automobile crashed and overturned on the front of the Mishawaka Transfer Co.'s office about 8:30 o'clock Thursday evening. Mr. Jordan was driving up to the curb and in attempting to stop evidently pushed his foot on the speed pedal instead of the brake. The car gave a jump and ran into the car ahead. The two headlights and the fender of the Jordan car were badly bent and the body of the other car slightly indented. Otherwise there was no damage and no one injured. The broken lamps were repaired in the street and the car proceeded on its trip.

BRIDE-TO-BE SURPRISED TWICE; TO WED TUESDAY

Miss Pearl Snyder was surprised Tuesday noon in the sewing room of the Mishawaka Woolen Manufacturing Co., when her girl friends carried out a silverware shower upon her. Miss Ada Emerson made the presentation speech. Dinner was served. On Wednesday evening, Miss Snyder was again pleasantly surprised when 30 of her friends came to her home on E. Lawrence st., to carry out a miscellaneous shower. Miss Snyder received many presents. The evening was spent in games, singing and other amusements. Refreshments were served.

Both showers were in honor of her approaching marriage to Earl Moore, which will take place Tuesday evening.

ROOTERS FORM CLUB.
For next Sunday's game with the Gergatz of South Bend on the north side diamonds the Mishawaka squad has organized a rooters club of nearly a hundred members who will attend the game and pull for the home team. The Gergatz team promises to bring a delegation of fans to root and it is expected that there will be a big time between the two rooting clubs. This team defeated Mishawaka two weeks ago Sunday by a score of 6 to 2 but the locals expect to win Sunday's game.

CIRCLE ENTERTAINED.
Mrs. Charles Bauer, 520 E. Marion st., on Wednesday afternoon pleasantly entertained the members of the Sewing circle of St. Andrew's church. Twenty-seven were present. A delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. Bauer. The circle will be entertained in about a month at the home of Mrs. Hoeflinger, N. Main st.
